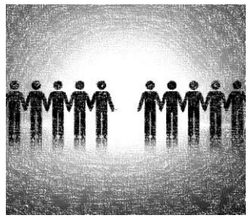
"For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."
Mark 10:45

ON BEING ABSENT

Heroes come and go. Popularity is constantly shifting be it a sandwich, a candy bar, a car or a sports hero. One thing is absolutely certain --- Jesus is alive. We do not come together on the Lord's Day to mourn the dead, but we come together to hail a conqueror. As the song say, "We saw thee not . . . but we believe." We believe because of the irrefutable witness of those who did see him. Mary Magdalene and the two women with her (Mark 16:1-8), the two men on the road to Emmaus (Mark 16:12-23; the ten apostles (John 20:19, 24) Why he was not there we do not know. Maybe he had a reason, but an excuse is not a reason.



What Thomas missed by not being present. 1. He missed of seeing Jesus for the first time after His resurrection (John 20:19); 2. He missed being able to have his faith strengthened (v.20); 3. He missed the peace Jesus gave to the others (v. 21); he missed the promise of the Holy Spirit (v.22); He missed the joy the others received in seeing Jesus (v.20) and he had another week filled with doubts about the resurrection (v. 25)

Certainly, a person can have justifiable reasons for missing worship services, and they do not have to answer to anyone but the Lord. But what do we miss by not being present? We miss another opportunity to encourage other brothers and sisters to draw closer to the Lord. (Hebrews 10:23-25) We miss an opportunity to make our congregation stronger. Someone said we vote to close the doors of the church when we miss. We miss the opportunity to have our faith strengthened (Romans 10:17) We miss the opportunity to have our joy renewed. (Philippians 4:4) When we meet, the Lord is present, and where the Lord is there is joy. A man was praying about the worship service he had attended and was telling the Lord about it, and he said, "You should have been there." Jesus promised to be with us (Matthew 18:20; 28:20) He is with us, and that fact alone should make us all want to be in worship services, as much as we can.
