How Do You Bear Persecution?

Jesus began The Sermon on the Mount with what are called the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:1-12). He was teaching His disciples the kind of life they should live to be blessed demonstrated by the beatitudes a truly happy like results from living righteously.

The eighth Beatitude reads, "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." (v. 10) Jesus went on to tell us that we should "rejoice and be exceedingly glad" if we are being persecuted for living a righteous life.

However, we live among people who do not share our Christian world view, and whose lives are diametrically opposed to righteousness. The rule is, "All who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution." (2 Timothy 3:12)

In this Beatitude, Jesus is telling us to feel good even when we are being persecuted for living righteously. When He said to "Rejoice and be exceedingly glad..." this is the only explicit command He gives in this sermon.

When we live for Christ, we can have abundant life and all spiritual blessings now in Him. (John 10:19; Ephesians 1:3).
